P4K Program Spotlight

6th Annual P4K Future's Fair

Our best year yet! 204 students and 47 presenters participated in the Future's Fair at the Barbara Weitz Community Engagement Center.

Goodrich scholars served as volunteer ambassadors and guided middle school students through rows of information booths set up by local businesses and UNO programs.

Be sure to check us out in UNO's "Gateway" HERE

High School Students - College Tours

Thank you to Metropolitan Community College - Fort Omaha Campus and Wayne State College for introducing P4K students to college life.

College Access Spotlight

Serena Moore, one of our P4K scholars at UNO was recently honored at the CCSW (Chancellor's Commission on the Status of Women) luncheon with an award and scholarship! Serena is a senior in Public Health and has been in P4K since elementary school.

Beyond the Basics

BEYOND THE BASICS SERIES

Please join us for a NE Loves Public Schools screening and facilitated discussion about the latest film in their digital library "Seeds of Hope" at the UNO Community Engagement Center on April 20th @ 12:00 p.m. Free parking and lunch are provided!

*Please register HERE to make your lunch selection

"Seeds of Hope" explores how schools welcome and educate immigrant and refugee families as they start their lives over in America. Follow Nebraska's newcomer students: the inconceivable trauma and tribulations of their past, the perseverance to succeed in the present, and their hopes for a brighter future through quality education."
